Land at Marston Farm, Stafford

LOCATION

The site is to the North of Stafford located between Tollgate industrial estate and Marston.

The HS2 line will pass to the north of the site.

Stafford City centre – 3.5 Miles

M6 J.14 – 3 Miles

DESCRIPTION

The site extends to approximately 54.6 acres (22.09ha) to include a large yard and modern buildings. Access is available from Marston lane. The lane may be improved with the provision of the HS2 railway line to serve contractor workings.

PLANNING

The local planning authority is Stafford Borough Council.

The area is due to undertake the significant development of 3,100 dwellings as per the North of Stafford Development Location Masterplan (2016) in accordance with The Plan for Stafford Borough (2014).

A planning application for 2,000 dwellings (16/25450/OUT) to the south of the site is awaiting a decision.

The land directly to the south of the site, off Marston Lane has been granted planning permission for 100 houses (18/28182/REM) and is currently being built out by Miller homes at 'Willow Grange'.

To the south west is the Taylor Wimpey, 'Marston Grange' development of approximately 400 dwellings.

The line of 'HS2' now delineates the northern boundary and planning representations have been made in the recent 'call for sites' with a proposed dwelling capacity of 550 – 600 dwellings.
