Detailed Planning Permission for 21 Dwellings set within 3.48 Acres (1.41 Hectares)

Land at Alfrick, Worcestershire

LOCATION

The site is located to the northern edge of the rural village of Alfrick, Worcestershire, with a vehicular access off Folly Road. The village lies to the north of the Malvern Hills and benefits from a community-owned food shop, café and post office, village hall, recreation ground and a pub approximately 1 mile to the north of the village.

A regular bus service is available from Alfrick which provides connectivity to the surrounding villages & towns. Knightwick Road that passes through the centre of the village enables access to the A4103 and Worcester to the east and the A44 to the north, with access to Hereford situated to the west.

For further amenities the picturesque town of Malvern is approximately 7 miles to the south, where there are restaurants, award winning schools, retail and leisure facilities along with the nearest train station, with connections to London Paddington in approximately 2.5 hours. The M5 (J7) motorway (north & south) is approximately 10 miles to the east of the village.

Malvern – 7 miles

Worcester – 8.3 miles

Hereford – 20.2 miles

DESCRIPTION

The site consists of a farmyard with a number of agricultural buildings consisting of open barns, workshops and covered stores. The site is accessed from a private driveway running gently uphill from Folly Lane to the west of the site. The farmyard is covered almost entirely with hardstanding including areas of concrete with informal hardstanding made up of compacted hardcore.

The site slopes gently downhill from south to north. Beyond the western boundary are rear gardens of residential dwellings. To the northern boundary the ground slopes steeply downhill with open pasture land beyond. To the northern end of the south western boundary is a row of mature oak trees. Beyond the southern boundary are residential properties along with the existing period farmhouse.
